2. ROUTINE REQUIREMENTS

Two routines will be performed by each competitor;

- Grades 1, 2 and 3 have set routines.
- Open Grade has minimum requirements to be met. The minimum requirements must be met in both routines.
- The Set Routines can only contain the skills specified below and they must be undertaken in the order shown.

Note:- there are no finals.

3. GENERAL

Attire – see General Manual for general attire requirements.

- Trampoline and Double Mini athletes are required to wear white socks while on the trampolines.

Judging

- Each routine is marked out of 10 by the judges.
- Degree of Difficulty (dd) will NOT be included into the mark for any routines.
- If a competitor forgets, or stops in a routine, at any stage before the 10th skill is completed, the routine score is calculated up to that point.
- A routine must be performed in a continual motion.
- There will be no bounces in between skills.
- A competitor may not do flick-flacs, forward/backward rolls, round off etc as part of their routine.
- No repeated skills.
- The skill “to feet” is not considered a repeat if coming from a different landing position.
- The competitor should stand still for 3 seconds at the end of each routine.
- The final or 10th skill must finish on the feet, and stop without rebound; although an extended jump (out bounce) may be used after the final skill
- Always make sure the routine selected is one which the athlete can complete with good style, confidence, and safety
