

WAGS is Hiring!

Part Time MAG or Full Time Coach Position: MAG, WAG, Recreation and Pre-school

WAGS is looking for an enthusiastic experienced MAG competitive gymnastic coach to join our team and the right person could also fill several coaching roles across many programmes.

WAGS has a small MAG competitive program that needs a Head Coach to lead and deliver a quality classes that are challenging and fun. This is a great opportunity for a coach to take on this program and make it their own.

A full time coaching role, for the right person, will also include coaching roles in our WAG, Tumble Play Gym and Recreational Gymnastics Program along with some administration hours.

WAGS provides a variety of gymnastics programs to the local and wider community. Our family friendly culture ensures a positive experience for everyone who comes to WAGS. Learning and achieving gymnastic and life skills in a safe and fun environment. We are fortunate to have a large well equipped gym and a membership of around 500.

Based at the Trigg Sports Arena Stadium in Whangarei. The winterless north!

Remuneration and hours will depend on applicant's current experience and qualifications

Hours will include weekend work (Saturdays) and also travelling away to competitions in competition season.

Start date: As soon as possible.

The successful applicant will have:

- A passion for gymnastics and helping their gymnasts be successful at every level.
- Experience and technical knowledge in coaching MAG competitive gymnasts
- Have a warm, caring and enthusiastic personality.

Our gym is amazing – so much space and equipment. It is a wonderful gym to work in. Our coaches are warm and friendly and are very dedicated to the wonderful sport of gymnastics.

But wait there's more.....

Whangarei is a great place to live. The lifestyle is easy. Warm, temperate climate, great white sandy beaches, all 20 -40 mins from town. Bush walks galore. Fantastic scenery. Town is only 10 minutes from most suburbs and you can get a park!

If this sounds like you, please send your resume and covering letter outlining your relevant experience in the above attributes to Vicki Macdonald via email to manager@wags.org.nz
