Senior Artistic Gymnastic Coach - 2 positions available (MAG & WAG)

Hamilton Central, Waikato
Coaching & Instruction (Sport & Recreation)
Full time

Hamilton City Gymnastics (HCG) is a respected gymnastics club known for its strong competitive programmes in both Men's and Women's Artistic Gymnastics. With a focus on fostering athletic development, teamwork, and excellence, HCG provides a supportive environment where gymnasts can thrive and reach their full potential.

2 Positions Available

Available Positions: Senior Men's Artistic Coach & Senior Women's Artistic Coach

Job Type: Permanent

Hours of Work: Monday to Saturday, approximately 35-40 hours per week. Flexibility required for weekend work as needed. Negotiable for the right candidate.

Pay: Based on experience and qualifications.

Reports To: Artistic Programme Manager

Location: Hamilton, NZ

Key Duties:

- Coach to a high standard in both the Women's (WAG) and Men's (MAG) Artistic programmes—predominantly at the senior levels, with coaching at the junior and elementary levels based on the needs of HCG's Artistic programme.
- Develop high-quality session plans for gymnasts, including goals, skills, and athlete development plans where appropriate.
- Collaborate with the Programme Manager on programme management, athlete progression, parent communication, and seasonal planning.
- Coach and assist at competitions attended by HCG club athletes.

Ideal Skills and Attributes:

- GNZ-qualified Senior Coach or equivalent
- 3+ years of coaching experience and proven success at local, regional, and national levels
- GNZ Judge qualification (ideal but not essential)
- Physically capable of supporting athlete needs
- Strong collaboration skills—working with and across codes and HCG staff
- Adaptability—able to adopt best practices to suit the needs of HCG and the NZ gymnastics environment
- Strong communication skills—maintaining open and proactive communication
- Safeguarding & Child Protection Certification
- Police vetting required for successful applicants
